

Pierre Dandjinou's Profile

Pierre Dandjinou is ICANN's Vice President of Stakeholder Engagement for the Africa region, and has held the position since 2012. He coordinates outreach, support and engagement with all stakeholders, including governments, civil society and private sector in Africa.

He has also held roles as Director at INFOCOM Intelligence, Chairman at AfriNIC, E-Governance Advisor at the United Nations Development Program, and the President of the ISOC Benin Chapter.

Pierre was a Regional Policy Advisor on ICT for Development at SURF/UNDP, Africa. He served as a Programme Officer for UNDP (1997-2000); in this position, he coordinated the Africa node of the Sustainable Development Networking Programme (SDNP).

Pierre Dandjinou, ICANN VP of Stakeholder Engagement in Africa